TEMPLE SINAI LIFELONG LEARNING FAMILY FIELD TRIP, GRADES 4-6
MADE POSSIBLE BY THE JACK ROSSEN LIFELONG LEARNING GRANT

ELIGIBLE FAMILIES TO TOUR JEWISH NEW YORK DURING SUKKOT
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2011

With Expert Jewish Tour Guide, Oscar Israelowitz

Seeking to provide lifelong Jewish learning opportunities for Temple Sinai families, the family of LLC member and former chair Jack Rossen, has commissioned a field trip to Jewish New York for a bus load of grade 4, 5 & 6 children and their parents. Tour guide Oscar Israelowitz will teach about the diverse Jewish communities of New York and Brooklyn to the first 55 lifelong learners to register. One highlight of the trip will take participants to visit Williamsburg and Borough Park, where EVERYONE has a sukkah!

Participants will experience and learn about:

- Jewish Plymouth Rock
- Archaeological Dig
- First Jewish settlement and first synagogue in North America
- Fraunces Tavern and its Jewish connection to Federal Hall
- U.S. Ground Zero Jerusalem Grove Castle Garden
- Lunch at Green & Ackerman's dairy restaurant
- Walking Tour & Description of Chassidic Williamsburg, attire and way of life
- Only Reform Temple in Borough Park
- Free time to walk along the main Borough Park shopping area of 13th Ave.
- Visit to the Munkatch Hassidim and their great Sukkah
- Visit to the Bobov sect's Sukkah

Field Trip Date and Time: Sunday, October 16, 2011; 9:00AM – 3:45PM

Eligible Participants: The first-to-register Grade 4, 5 and 6 parents/students to fill the bus

Participants' Attire: Modest dress (long skirt & sleeves for girls/women; long pants for boys/men)

With our thanks, this Lifelong Learning Opportunity is FREE to eligible participants, courtesy of the Jack Rossen Lifelong Learning Grant.

COMPLETE FORM BELOW & DROP OFF IN RS OFFICE ON SEPTEMBER 11

NOTE: THE FIRST 55 PARTICIPANTS TO REGISTER WILL BE NOTIFIED THAT THEY WILL BE ABLE TO PARTICIPATE ON THIS LIMITED-POPULATION TRIP. ALL OTHER FAMILIES RESPONDING FAMILIES WILL BE PLACED ON A WAITING LIST, IN CASE OF CANCELLATIONS.
