TASHLIKH CEREMONY

Thursday, September 9, 3:30-4:00pm
Shepard Kollock Park, Chatham, NJ

The entire congregation is cordially invited to join Rabbi Gershon and Cantor Friedman for Tashlikh, the powerful and moving ceremony through which we symbolically cleanse ourselves of past mistakes by throwing bread crumbs into flowing water. We will meet in the Shepard Kollock Park in Chatham, where there is ample parking. Wear comfortable shoes as the parking lot is somewhat stony. The Tashlikh service will not be held in case of inclement weather.

- From either US 24 or River Road take Main St. (US 124 West) into Chatham
- At the first traffic light turn left onto Parrot Mill Rd (University Ave. is to the right).
- Take the first left onto Henderson Rd. and into the parking area.
- If you make it to the turn-around at the end of Parrot Mill Rd. then return to the parking area at Henderson Rd.
